The Dandelion, synonymous with making a wish, symbolises the beginning of my journey as an artist. The "in-between" refers to the time between making a wish and realising its fulfilment.

This body of work represents the materialisation of my dream into reality and the reminder that it takes action to make a wish come true.

PHOTOGRAPHER

Meet Ben Williams, Australian Fine Art Photographer, who draws inspiration from the silhouettes and shapes of the sky and sea.

In his premiere solo exhibition, Ben explores the "in-between" - the feeling of being lost or found in a moment, represented by the nexus of time and light as the sun meets the horizon.

Explore Ben's latest body of work from May 29th and enjoy a visual exposition of the shapes and colours of the "in-between".
